

Alexander H. Mun – Associate

Since joining Russell Friedman & Associates in 2012, Attorney Alexander H. Mun has provided invaluable services to our clients dealing with no-fault issues. A skilled and proven litigator, he has tried more than 75 no-fault cases. His attention to detail and diligence has led to numerous successful results. From inception to appeal, he possesses the skills required to handle all areas of complex litigation. The ultimate success of our clients, which includes healthcare providers and hospitals, is what drives him.

In 2010, Attorney Alexander Mun completed his legal studies at Thomas Jefferson School of Law, and independent law school in San Diego, and completed his undergraduate studies at New York University in 2003. A Korean speaker, he is a proud member of the Korean American Lawyers Association of Greater New York. Our legal team is glad to work alongside such as a passionate and zealous advocate. He treats each case in his care as a top priority. His extensive knowledge regarding the state of New York's no-fault laws could make all the difference to the resolution of your case.

Attorney Alexander Mun is licensed to practice in New York, California, the U.S District Court, Southern District of New York, and the U.S District Court, Eastern District of New York. As soon as you enlist his top-notch legal services as a New York healthcare consulting attorney, he will begin working on a results-driven strategy specifically for your case. Become informed of your rights and options during an initial consultation, at no additional cost to you.

Education

- Thomas Jefferson School of Law, J.D. – 2010
- New York University, B.S. – 2003

Professional Associations & Memberships

- Nassau County Bar Association
- Korean American Lawyers Association of Greater New York

Contact our office to discuss your case with Mr. Mun as soon as possible.