A talented and passionate New York and New Jersey attorney, Christopher M. Arzberger joined Russell Friedman & Associates in 2019.

Prior to joining our firm, Mr. Arzberger attended Hofstra University Law School, where received his Juris Doctorate in 2007. During his time there he completed training programs with the National Institute of Trial Advocacy, while also serving as a member of the Child Advocacy Clinic.

Following graduation, Attorney Arzberger went to work for a well-regarded defense firm, where he was able to gain diverse litigation and jury trial experience in the fields of personal injury, premises liability, employment discrimination, and municipal liability. Mr. Arzberger also has experience in family law, advocating on behalf of clients in child custody, child support, and adoption cases. In addition, he has defended multiple clients in assorted criminal and traffic matters.

While gaining experience in these fields, Mr. Arzberger also went back to school at Columbia University. In 2017, he received his master's degree in conflict resolution, allowing him to specialize in commercial and family mediations.

Attorney Arzberger is currently admitted to practice law in New York and New Jersey, as well as in U.S. Federal Courts for the Eastern District of New York, the District of

New Jersey, and the Second Circuit Court of Appeals. He is also a member of the New York State Bar Association.
