

Russell C. Friedman

Founding Partner

We at Russell Friedman & Associates, LLP are proud to have Russell C. Friedman as one of our founding partners.

Throughout the course of his legal career, which spans more than three decades, he has built a reputation in the collection of denied no fault claims. Over the past five years, he has continually expanded and evolved his practice to more readily adjust to the growing needs of hospitals in collection of their No fault claims. His solid reputation for providing legal services of the highest caliber have made our firm the preferred choice of many hospitals and medical professionals. His practice areas include no fault regulations, arbitration, litigation, secondary payer, medical practice management, commercial agreements, no-fault insurance consulting, and commercial matters.

As a New York attorney, he is active in both corporate and litigation matters, experienced in the representation of health care providers, practitioners, group practices, and hospitals. Additionally, he represents health care practices and entrepreneurs in the daily operations and regulatory compliance of their practices. His representation consists of health care practitioners, management service organizations, physicians, chiropractors, podiatrists, physical therapists, and other health professionals and organizations in connection with matters related to no fault law and the collection of unpaid insurance claims. Our firm currently represents and helps more than 70 hospitals and more than 200 health care providers with regard to their efforts to collect on billing related to auto accident-related services rendered to Eligible Injured Parties.
